Stay Tuned

The show must go on!

This has been a difficult and challenging time for everyone. With COVID19 we are living with something which disrupts social, economic and cultural life. We are needing to adjust daily to new developments. In Washington we are at the top of the list for regions of the U.S. affected by the outbreak.

Accordingly, the role of arts and culture during times like these cannot be overstated. Culture is composed of the combined norms, rituals and behaviors that define us.

Through the ongoing support and generosity of our fans and patrons, we will weather this storm. It is still 2020, and we're still celebrating our 20th anniversary year. When the time comes, we will be ready to open our doors once again and welcome you back for just such an opportunity to be together.

One thing is sure: we won't take it for granted. This is when we realize how much it matters!

A public informational meeting for this year's fall musical, "The Sound of Music," has been scheduled for Wed., May 27 @ 6:30 pm. Auditions are scheduled for June 8-11. This will be our 20th annual fall musical production. Directed by Mike Ferrians and Brenda Henderson.

STAY TUNED.

At this point we are planning on the annual Yard Sale, May 2.

We will notify everyone if this changes or the event is cancelled. Meanwhile, you're encouraged to contact Bev Startin at 382-4093 or 386-4638 if you have items to donate to the theater.

Thank you!
